Our Responsible Camino walking holiday offers a unique chance to explore the Camino Fisterra / Finisterre Way to Santiago de Compostela in a more traditional way. You will stay in family-run "casas rurales" (rural guesthouses), often century-old buildings and tastefully renovated. It also gives you a chance to be closer to nature and make your journey to Saint-James even more authentic. Gastronomy is also a highlight on the Responsible Camino, with traditional meals cooked in our selected guesthouses.

The Jacobean Way comes to an end in the city of Santiago. However, many of the pilgrims decide to extend their journey to the "Coast of Death". The Camino passes remote hilly villages and finishes at steep cliffs of Spain's westernmost point.
